

RYAN BRAHMS

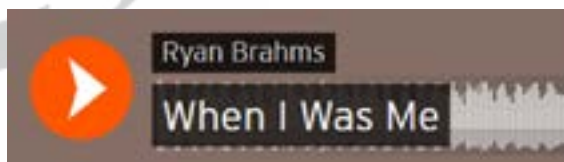

NYC native Ryan Brahms is an emerging singer, songwriter, musician who plays numerous instruments including clarinet, saxophone, drums, guitar, bass and piano; leading him to compose, arrange and play the music to most of his songs. His songwriting and R&B/Pop fusion sound captures true emotion in many of his offerings.

Brahms' current single, "Love Dealer," takes listeners on a sensual ride over an energizing, synth-heavy track that you can't help but dance to. No matter where his sound ultimately lands, Brahms' work with super producers Teddy Riley and Richie Rich makes it clear that his hard-won perseverance and genuine talent will keep him in the music game for years to come.
